"In Naco, Ariz." he says, "the right arm of the Government guards not the lives of the inhabitants. Barricades of hav bales before the windows keep Mexican builets from killing them in their sleep; in the daytime they duck low and trust to luck."

Invasion Easy.

Invasion by a European power he research as rid'culously easy.

"Right before our very eyes," he says, "cur navy and army have deteriorated so far, no one cates. It has been demonstrated and proved beyond argument that the American Navy is not strong enough to maintain the command of the sea and uphold the Monroe doctrine. With the American fleet swept off the sea, the enemy's finasion on our soil becomes but a matter of steamer scheduls. Twice this has been done in the war games of our own fleet.

"The army cannot defend all its forts," he continues. "It has no automobiles to transport all its baggage; its shoes are for the parade ground and will wear out under two months' marching: it has nineteen motor ambulances for its wounded, its surply system cannot stand the strain of war, but will break down as it did durins the Snanish war. Food or Water Lives

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 23.—Twenty-two days without food or water and still living is the remarkable record of a Plymouth Rock hen at Georgeville.

On October 29 some one put a hen in the back of J. I. Sieward's buggy and closed the flup. Mr. Steward drave home, put the bingy away, and did not make it intil twenty-two days later, when he accidentally discovered the enticken. The foul, reduced to a skeleton, is respectively.

Says It is Trained to Travel on Pillow and That Patriotism Is Vanishing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Henry Reuterdahl, the artist, who enjoys the reputation of an expert on navy affairs, has an article in the Metropolitan Marraine for December, entitled "Arm or Surrender," in which he makes some startling assertions regarding the defenseless condition of the nation from a military point of view.

He opens with this sharp arraignment of Americans' netriotism—or lack of it: "Our patriotism is waning and drifting away on the ebb tide of indifference, and as a nation our manhood is on the decline; netlonal conscience—have not. No longer can an American hold up his head abroad. Our "lace in the world is that of a money has. In Germany we are laughed at, dearlies, which can be paid for in cash. The Prench shrust that sheet shrust that shrust that shrust that sheet and of principle, raised his hand. There rose in unison the old cry:

"LONG LIVE THE KING."

own city, and it was enough to give even Billy Cutler, city editor, pause for at least a movement.

"Well, good Lord!" said he, "who'll I put on the society naxe? Boys, the flowers were a total loss—and so am I! Here is an alias and an alib!! Listen!" He read from the little yellow bit of paper which he held:

"Great story, but cannot return to America inside six months as promised. I have lost my wager, but have gained a husband and a home. Katharine, Regina Gractisjovensis."

Prisoner Shows Teeth to Court, Gets Off With Novel

Punishment. Wil.KES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 22 -With the understanding that he abstain from eating meat for a period of three months, Judge H. A. Fuller paroled hrunk Marenski, who had beer adjudged guilty of assault and battery on Victor Duna.

The assault took place during a fight, and Duna charged that Marenski bit a mouthful of flesh from nis body. No other damage was done.

Judge Fuller was inclined to treat the situation humorously, and asked Marenski to show his teeth in court. This he did, after which the court decreed that he could go free if he promised not

Breaks Leg For Eighth Time in Ten Years

HALTIMORE, Nov. 23.—For the eighth time within ten years Charles Burns, son of Charles E. Burns, of Towson, broke one of his legs by failing from the steps of his home. The boy was about to go walking with his father when his foot slioned from one of the steps and he fell forward.

he fell forward.

The bov received the first break when he was two years old by falling from a stool. Seven months ago he fell while on his way from school, and for the seventh time one of his legs was broken. All the breaks were from falls. Each leg has been broken in different places four times.
